After watching the video Think Before You Click: Playing It Safe Online and participating in the class activities included in this Teacher’s Resource Book, your students will be able to:

- understand that they will likely face certain risks on the Internet, and they should be prepared to deal with these risks.

- recognize that face-to-face communication with a friend is a much more effective way to solve a problem than using the Internet.

- recognize the negative consequences that can result from online bullying or harassment.

- understand that their online activities can be traced by the authorities.

- realize they can avoid online sexual predators, have fun and stay safe online.

- use the 12 simple rules presented in the program as a guide to Internet safety.
