PRE/POST TEST

Name: __________________________________

Directions: Read each statement, then circle TRUE or FALSE.

1. You can be a good citizen by helping out with a school bake sale.  TRUE  FALSE

2. A person who has good character is honest and treats others with respect.  TRUE  FALSE

3. It is up to the principals and teachers, not the students, to make your school a better place.  TRUE  FALSE

4. Part of being respectful to others is treating their personal property with care.  TRUE  FALSE

5. One reason why schools have rules is to keep everyone safe.  TRUE  FALSE

6. Teachers and students are members of a school’s community, but custodians and lunchroom aides are not.  TRUE  FALSE

7. Students who always follow the rules in their classrooms are good citizens, even if they run and push others in the hall.  TRUE  FALSE

8. Giving back to the community means helping your community because your community helps you.  TRUE  FALSE

9. Class rules are made to help teachers teach but not to help students learn.  TRUE  FALSE

10. If someone in your class is doing something unsafe, like running with scissors, you should show the person respect by minding your own business and not saying anything.  TRUE  FALSE
PRE/POST TEST ANSWER KEY

(Pre/Post Test, page 25)

1. T
2. T
3. F
4. T
5. T
6. F
7. F
8. T
9. F
10. F